

I would not appreciate the FCC overriding my state law on this matter. I received somewhere in the neighborhood of 50 -60 unwanted phone calls per week. Now I receive none. I understand that the federal guidelines will be more relaxed than my state guidelines. I don't understand why the federal government sees fit to govern my state on this matter.